Verb Exercises for Class 8 CBSE With Answers - English Grammar Definition of Verb A verb is a word that expresses an action or a state or an existence. e.g. Nirbhay swims in the swimming pool everyday. (Action) The water is cold. (State) The great pyramids are in Egypt. (Existence) I think its nice. (Feeling) Types of Verbs Verbs are of two types 1. Main Verbs Main Verbs All the verbs which express action are the main verbs. According to their usage, they are classified as transitive and intransitive verbs. Transitive Verbs Transitive verbs are those which take an object, i.e. their action is transferred over to the object. e.g. Arnab reads newspaper. Intransitive Verb Intransitive verbs are those which do not take any object, i.e. the action is limited to the subject only. The verbs, play, read, write, watch, show, cook, start etc are transitive verbs. e.g. The baby is crying aloud. Verbs like, sleep, run, cry, weep, smile, laugh, go, walk, come, tire etc are intransitive verbs. However, some transitive verbs can sometimes be used intransitively and vice-versa. Compare the following sentences to understand this 2. Helping Verbs/Auxiliaries There are 24 auxiliaries in English language. These are further classified as primary and modals. Primary Auxiliaries Verbs such as am, is, are, was, were, do, did, have, etc are used with other ordinary (or main) verbs to form tenses, passive voice, questions, negative sentences etc. e.g. (i) Radha does not trust Krishna. (ii) They have worked for a hour. Modal Verbs/Modals Verbs will, shall, would, can, could, might etc are the modal verbs or modals. They are used with main verbs to form sentences expressing permissions, orders, obligations, requests etc. Conjugation of Verbs Verbs have three principal forms. Forming these three forms is called conjugation of verbs. The three forms of verbs are Present Tense (Original form) Past Tense Past Participle Chapter Practice Question 1: Fill in the blanks with the correct forms of the verbs given in brackets.
